LONG TIME COMPETITOR PICKS UP FIRST CLOCK AT CHINCHILLA

A long held dream was realised for Springsure campdrafter Peter O'Neill when last weekend he took out the prestigious Black Toyota Grandfather Clock open campdraft at Chinchilla from a field of 560 nominations. Throughout his time competing at Chinchilla regularly over the past 27 years Peter has picked up places in both the grandfather clock open and restricted open, and won the novice campdraft in 2008 on Roma, a twelve-year-old daughter of Romeo, bred by the Pechey Stud. Roma and Peter have proved themselves as a winning combination over the past few years, but nothing tops their biggest win yet last weekend.

In a demonstration of impressive consistency, Peter and Roma earned themselves scores of 90 in every round of the event, which included two rounds and a final, for a total score of 270.

To complete the win, Peter also picked up third place in the grandfather clock on Claudette, with a three round total of 264, just one point behind local competitor Wayne Knudsen on Aladdin in second place with 265. Peter left Chinchilla on a high to realise another dream this week at Warwick, where he is judging the famed Black Toyota Warwick Gold Cup.

The atmosphere was buzzing when Nigel Kable and Chevin Ivory entered the camp for their run in the first round of the clock, after they took out the $30,000 Condamine Bell the previous weekend. Stakes were high with another $30,000 on offer for the horse and rider combination who could win all three open drafts at Condamine, Chinchilla and Warwick, known as the Triple Crown of Campdrafting. Kable and Ivory did not disappoint, on the completion of the first round they were equal leaders with a score of 91, along with Pete Comiskey on Betty and Wayne Knudsen on Aladdin. However, their scores of 84 and 82 in the second and final rounds respectively, meant that the Triple Crown remained unattainable for another year.

With the total prize money for the weekend in excess of $45,000, the competition remained strong throughout the three other events as well. A three way run off was held in the Knudsen Family Restricted Open between Robert Plant on Icon, Pete Comiskey on Roanys Chex and Cameron Webster on Janelle. Local competitor Robert Plant had the edge to take the prize with a 262, followed by Nebo competitor Pete Comiskey on 259 and Cameron Webster from Wandoan on 255.

Success was well deserved for Robert, who has been competing at Chinchilla since 1990 and won the coveted grandfather clock in 1994 at age 19.

The Landmark Novice campdraft was taken out by Kingaroy competitor Mark Buttsworth on Play Maree with a 261. Mark also received 7th place on Playin Harmonica and won the cut-out prize on Double Dove. Karl Burton on Oaks Penny came in second with 261, followed by Scott Hayes on Pasadoblay on 259.

The trip was worthwhile for Victoria competitor Vicki Hiscock who took out the Chinchilla Vet Ladies draft on Ardo Top Shot, and also placed fourth in the restricted open on Pheobie. Local campdrafter Jackie Knudsen on Barister tied for second and third place in the ladies along with Veronica Howson on Cadence.

The Friday night made for great entertainment with the Sandon Glenoch Angus Bareback Cut-Out being held under lights, a regular inclusion in the program at Chinchilla. Well-achieved stallion, Marnies Destiny, owned by Rick and Gaylene Young from Dalby, took out the honours with Mitchell Stranks aboard. Brooke Fitzgerald on Chilli Pepper and Luke Klan on Noble Miss tied for second and third place. The calcutta was won by the Will Fay Syndicate and $533 was donated to the Cancer Council.

Another successful campdraft at Chinchilla can be accredited to the dedication of the committee and the loyal support from the valued sponsors, cattle donors and judges.
