Hell Blazer Syndicate will provide AQHA breed certificates for all eligible mares once the stallion service fee, all veterinary expenses, agistment bills, handling fees and any other charges incurred on behalf of the mare owner have been paid to the relevant parties in full.

Any mare owner wishing to seek registration with other breed societies must purchase and provide the relevant breed certificate to the stallion owner for completion.

When attempting embryo transfer and two eggs are flushed, any additional embryo/foal will be invoiced to the mare owner on a positive pregnancy test. The live foal guarantee becomes null and void if the mare owner returns the mare to work/competition after a positive pregnancy test. This contract offers live foal guarantee for one foal. However, after 3 attempts at service, if after consultation with the mare owner, vet and stallion owner, a change of mare may be requested by the stallion owner with no additional charges payable for the service fee by the mare owner.

6. In the event Hell Blazer should die or become unfit for service, and frozen semen becomes unavailable to fulfil rebreed commitments as per condition 7, then this contract shall become null and void, and any money paid as part of the service fee shall be refunded.
7. In the event that the mare aborts or if the foal does not stand to nurse, it is agreed that the mare owner may return the mare for breeding during the following breeding season and no stud fee will be charged for subsequent breeding. To be entitled to such subsequent breeding the owner must deliver a certificate by a licensed veterinarian attesting that the mare aborted or that the foal failed to stand and nurse. Any mare owner who chooses to not take their rebreed in the following season will lose live foal guarantee unless prior approval granted by stallion owner.
8. When the mare owner signs and returns one copy of this contract with payment to Hell Blazer Syndicate, this will be a binding contract on both parties subject to the above terms and conditions. This contract is not transferable or assignable.
